Antigua and Barbuda, the largest of the English-speaking Leeward Islands, offers a unique opportunity for individuals and families to acquire citizenship through its Citizenship by Investment Program. This program was established in 2012 and has since become a popular choice for those seeking a second passport and the benefits that come with it

QUALIFICATIONS

Established in 2012, Antigua & Barbuda's Citizenship by Investment Program offers a path to citizenship through qualifying investments. Here's a breakdown of the program's requirements:

Investment:

Applicants must make a significant investment in Antigua & Barbuda.

Good Character

Applicants must have a clean criminal record.

Health:

Applicants must be in good health.

Net Worth:

While there's no officially stated minimum net worth requirement, applicants are expected to have sufficient funds to support themselves and their families in Antigua & Barbuda.

Residency:

New citizens are required to spend at least 5 days in Antigua & Barbuda within 5 years of obtaining citizenship.

Interview:

Applicants 16 years and older must participate in a mandatory interview as part of the due diligence process.

WHY CHOOSE ANTIGUA AND BARBUDA?

With a combined size of 442 square kilometers and a population of over 90,000 people, Antigua and Barbuda is the ninth-largest country by size in the Caribbean.

The country's economic citizenship program provides visa-free travel to more than 140 countries, including the Schengen zone, the UK, Hong Kong, Singapore, and others. Additionally, Antigua and Barbuda recognizes dual citizenship, which can be advantageous for business expansion and tax relief.

INVESTMENT OPTIONS

The Antigua and Barbuda Citizenship by Investment Program offers several investment options, including:

National Development Fund Contribution or Charitable Donation:

High net worth individuals may choose to make a monetary contribution of US$100,000 (up to four people) or US$125,000 (five or more people) to the National Development Fund or an approved charity

Real Estate Investment:

Applicants may purchase property with a value of US$200,000 or US$400,000 in a pre-approved real estate development area. The investment must be maintained for a minimum of five years

Business Establishment:

Applicants may invest US$1.5 million to establish a business and qualify to apply for citizenship. Two or more applicants may make a joint business investment where the individual threshold must be a minimum of US$400,000 and the total investment must be a minimum of US$5 million

University of West Indies Fund:

For an investment of US$150,000, a family of six is eligible to apply for citizenship. The investment amount includes processing and government fees; however, customary due diligence fees do apply for each qualified dependent

APPLICATION FEES

Our Advisory fees are based on the number of dependents, country of origin, residence, and other retained services, as well as service and legal fees related to the submission of citizenship and passport application for the main applicant. The advisory fees are non-refundable and are payable in two equal installments. All application fees charged by the government of Antigua and Barbuda are subject to change

These fees depend on the number of applicants and the complexity of the process. Please contact us if you have any questions or need more information

ADDITIONAL FEES

Applicants and their families must also pay the following fees depending on the size of the family for either of the investment options
